Centreville Christmas Parade

Please be advised of the following announcement by the Centreville Police Department regarding Friday's Christmas Parade:

TRAFFIC ADVISORY -- TRAFFIC ADVISORY

The Annual Centreville Christmas Parade will take place on Friday evening, December 1 beginning at 6:30pm. As in past years, the parade will begin and end at the Queen Anne's County High School parking lot with the route of travel being Railroad Ave. to Banjo Lane, Turpins Lane, turning south onto Commerce Street to Kidwell Ave. and ending at the QACHS parking lot.

Commerce Street will be closed at Ridgeview Ave. and traffic turned around beginning at approximately 6:15pm until the parade ends, which will be approximately 2 hours long. Police Officers will be at every intersection along the parade route to assist with traffic and pedestrian movement however, citizens are urged to plan accordingly and use alternate routes if necessary. Once the parade begins, all roads along the parade route will be closed to all traffic.

Motorists are further urged to use caution in and around the town, as there will be a large amount of pedestrian traffic in the area and to obey directions of Police Officers, as we attempt to quickly and efficiently move traffic.
