

ENVIRONMENTAL TIP #44

DID YOU KNOW that Corsica Watershed Awareness Day is being held on Saturday, September 21, Noon to 4 PM? The event will be held at Bloomfield Farm, Centreville, located on Route 213 between Northbrook and White Marsh Road.

Please come and celebrate. This is a free family event with fun for all! Learn what is going on with the Corsica River restoration and how you can be a part.

Corsica Watershed Awareness Day will feature:

Live Music by The Chester River Runoff
Hayrides/Ecotours	Restoration Activities
Kids' Activities	Pony Rides
Food	Farmhouse Tours

- Free Native Tree Give-away to First 150 Families
- Free Rain Barrel to First 5 Visitors to the Town of Centreville's Exhibit
- Drawing for a Kayak – Donated by the Corsica River Conservancy

Sponsored by:
Queen Anne's County Department of Parks and Landings
Corsica River Conservancy
Town of Centreville

For more information: Queen Anne's Office of Tourism, 410-604-2100, www.corsicariverconservancy.org, or www.corsicariver.com.

Always remember that what we do on land affects the Corsica River and the Chesapeake Bay – www.corsicariver.com