Esthetician and Centreville resident Stephanie Cooke recently opened a skin care salon called Skin Studio. While this business is new to Centreville, Stephanie has successfully run Skin Studio since December 2006.

Skin Studio offers customized facials, full body waxing services, specialty makeup lessons and applications, individual lash applications as well as brow and lash tint. "All custom facials start with a short consultation to talk over any concerns you may have or any areas I see may need attention after providing a skin analysis. We will come up with the appropriate skin care treatment together." Skin Studio also provides off site makeup service for not only wedding parties but for bachelorette parties/weekends, birthday parties or even family portraits. Stephanie also provides group makeup lessons for just a fun ladies night!

Stephanie's career started in the makeup field in 2002. "Once I entered the industry I went on to find my passion in skin care and graduated valedictorian from Von Lee International School of Aesthetics in 2005 becoming a Maryland State Certified Aesthetician." Stephanie's goal for this new Centreville location is to "create a cozy and relaxing atmosphere where clients knew that they would have my undivided attention. A space where you can escape the hectic chaos of life for either the few moments you are here for a wax or for that full hour of relaxation for your customized facial".

Skin Studio offers walk in hours during the week, but Stephanie suggests making an appointment to ensure not having to wait. To prepare for your appointment Stephanie advises "for waxing, no prior exfoliation, Retin A, glycolic or other specific product use" and for makeup appointments Stephanie asks "that you come in with a "fresh" face of no makeup."

Contact Stephanie Cooke at Skin Studio to feel relaxed, rejuvenated, and completely pampered. Let Stephanie "show you your most beautiful self!"
