Centreville CIRCULAR

The Centreville Circular is a quarterly advertising direct mail publication produced by Centreville Main Street. It is published in March, June, September and December. Its purpose is to support buying local by directly connecting businesses and residents. It is made possible by the Main Street Promotion Committee volunteers who donate their time and talent.

Special thanks to:

- Katie Reid, Contributing Writer
- Marge Strano, Resident: Contributing Writer
- Ann DeVilbiss, Resident: Contributing Writer
- Carolyn Coon, Starfish Design: Graphic Design
- Kara Luthardt, Luth Arts: Graphic Design & Meeting Coordinator
- Stephen & Jean Sand, Residents: Features
- Deb Sigler, Resident: Graphic Design
- Christina Lippincott: Publication Design & Production

I hope you enjoy this issue and patronize our local businesses. I invite you to contact me and find out how you can get involved with Centreville Main Street.

Getting farm-fresh items in Centreville just got a little easier as the Centreville Farmers' Market is launching a pilot delivery program this season.

Through the program, the market will deliver to homes and businesses within a five-mile radius of the market by teaming up with an existing personal delivery service business called Beat the Rush. Shoppers who wish to have their orders delivered enroll as a subscriber and pay a one time $25 subscription fee for the 2019 season.

Each week subscribers can order online for delivery on Wednesdays. Additional delivery days may be added, as needed. All orders must be pre-paid online by credit card. To learn more or to receive a subscription form, call (410) 758-1180, ext. 17 or email centrevillefarmersmkt@gmail.com.
